

Vice President Opening Statement:

Hello everyone! I am Ashley Helfinstein, vice presidential candidate for the Green Party. You might think you know the Green Party, but you've never seen it like this before! Barbara Hoang is the revolutionary candidate that will make a true impact on the country for good. When elected president, she will use her extraordinary experience to make the right choices for our great country. Barbara is a child of the party: she was raised in a green household with dedicated environmental parents. Their legacy was great environmental change, and so is Barbara's. She has completed many environmental protection projects in the past, which have been quite successful. Now she's here to continue the family legacy of greatness and help this whole country. She's prepared to make changes to help you specifically and make your lives better! Barbara is the right choice you, for the country and for the environment. A vote for Hoang is a vote for our world. I am proud to present your future protector and leader, Barbara Hoang!
